Farmer Sells 163 Hogs for $3,000-Automobile Displaced by Stage Coach-Other State News.

GOSHEN, Ind., Sept. 10 .- An attempt was made last night, presumably after midnight, to rob the Exchange Bank, of Middlebury, owned by J. S. Mather & Son, but the robbers were evidently frightened away before they forced entrance into the vault. The attempt is attributed to the report that prevailed yesterday in Middlebury that B. F. Freeland, the tank manufacturer, was to receive $6,000, which was to have been deposited in the bank. It was not received,

Home talent is suspected. The would-be robbers had pried the front door open, having first taken the precaution to wire shut from the outside three doors of the hotel, two buildings north of the brick bank building, so as to prevent the occupants giving chase readily in case they were detected. The attempt was not discovered until this Developments on Leases in Vicinity of Parker City.

PARKER CITY, Ind., Sept. 10 .- The wildcat well on the Perry lease drilled in recently by the Bloomington Oil Company, and thought to be a duster, has proved to be a good gasser, testing 140 pounds pressure, and will be connected with the pipe line of the H. C. Vaught & Sons' Company furniture plant of this city. This well is in territory heretofore undeveloped, as it was considered of but little value for either gas or oil. Several wells will be sunk at once in this new field, as it is the opinion of expert gas and oil men that it vill be very productive. This territory lies Gas Company, which is seeking a franchise

RESIGNATIONS DEMANDED. Each Member of South Bend Police

Force Asked to Quit.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 10 .- The biggest sensation to be sprung in local police circles in recent years was the action of the Board of Public Safety to-day in demanding the resignations of every member of the South Bend police department excepting Chief of Police McWeeney. The latter was appointed to succeed Peter Kline, who was ousted two weeks ago. The South Bend police department consists of thirty men, and there is a general understanding that very few of them will be able to convince the board that they should be retained. The reason for the big "cleaning up" is that many of the men are antagonistic to the present administration.

Packing House Teamsters Declare

Their Intention to Go Out. CHICAGO, Sept. 10. - Packing-house eamsters renewed their fight against the stockyards concerns to-night at a meeting of the union. It is the avowed intention to order a strike of the 600 drivers employed by Swift & Co., and a struggle which may reach the dimensions of the strike of three months ago is said to be one of the probabilities of the near future. The trouble is the result of the alleged refusal of Swift & Co. to live up to the agreement reached last May establishing a minimum wage of 18 cents an hour.

special committee on literature for the G. A. R. encampment next month is the most elaborate that has ever been compiled for the property until a 10 per cent. credit of a like occasion. Gen. Thomas M. Vincent is chairman of this committee, and Dr. Marcus Benjamin has had charge of the work of editing the different articles. The book is now in the hands of the printer. This book will not only be of great interest to all veterans, but will be a valuable addition to the works on the civil war. It will be printed on fine book paper, and contain about 150 pages, devoted to war-time events in Washington and its vicinity. Fourteen articles have been contributed, several of them by army officers who took actual part in the incidents of which they write. Each article will be introduced by a full-page illustration. There will be fifteen portraits of civil, military and naval officers who were connected with fights around Washington; also portraits which he claims possession by virtue of a of Secretary Stanton, Secretary Welles, decision of the State Supreme Court in an Generals Scott, Meigs, Wright, McDowell and others. The front piece will be Brady's famous photograph of President Lincoln which was loaned the committee by Osborn H. Oldroyal, who has charge of the Lincoln memorial collection at 516 Tenth street. Other valuable portraits and illustrations were secured from the collection at the War Department.

The book will contain two very interesting maps, one of which will show every fort in the District of Columbia during the time of war and other points of historic interest. The other will locate the different hospitals, the recollection of which is dear to every surviving veteran who was ever an inmate of one of these institutions. Thousands of copies of the book will be printed and placed on sale during the reunion at the different newsstands and book stores. An edition de luxe will also be issued.

The list of articles to be published in this book, with the authors, is as follows: paper than were received from the speech 'Washington at the Beginning of the War," by Wilhelmus Bogart Bryan, chronicler of the Columbia Historical Society; "The Military Situation in Washington in 1861," by Dr. Marcus Benjamin, president of the Society of the War of 1812; "The Defenses of Washington," by Gen. ATTENDANCE INCREASES.

Pleasing Concert Given by Liberati's Military Band. Liberati's Military Band pleased a larger crowd at Fair Bank last evening than on the opening night of the engagement. The programme was an interesting one, includton," by Gen. Thomas McCurdy Vincent; | ing many popular overtures and classic selections. The selections from "Robin Hood" probably pleased the audience more than any other number. Signor Liberati played a cornet obligato to "O Promise Me," and the pure tones of his instrument could be heard above those of the other fifty musicians in the band. Miss Klarer, Thomas McCurdy Vincent; "The Hospitals soprano, who was delayed on account of a of Washington," by Dr. John Wells Bulkwreck and did not sing at Tuesday evening's concert, was present last evening and took part in the selections from operas. Liberati will give a special matinee this afternoon and souvenir copies of his march, "Our American Belle," will be presented to every woman present. A matinee will also be given on Saturday afternoon. To-night's programme follows:

Geologist's Report Returned.

The report of the State geologist will not be printed this year. Governor Durbin has returned to W. S. Blatchley the papers and statistics which had been in the hands of the Printing Board, Mr. Blatchley asked for the return of his manuscript and maps because the printing of the report has been delayed so long it has lost all value as statistical matter. An insufficient appropriation is given as the reason the report was not printed.
